KILBY HISTORIC SITE

Kilby Historic Site is the perfect place to celebrate a trip down memory lane. Kilby General Store is all that remains of the original town of Harrison Mills- a once bustling community in the early 1900s. The store was the town's hub, serving as the general supply store, post office, gas station and hotel.

Today, Kilby General Store is a world-class living historic site, complete with costumed interpreters, the General Store Museum, Manchester House Hotel & Post Office, farm animals, a quaint home-style restaurant and gift shop and 22-site waterfront campground.

From December 6-17th from Thursday to Monday from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm, Kilby Historical Site, everyone is invited to celebrate Christmas on the water.

- December 8th and 9th- crafts, carolers and Father Christmas will making an appearance.
- Ham and turkey dinner available
- One-hour carol ship cruise with Fraser River Safari
- Complementary mulled cider and homemade cookies

Visit www.kilby.ca for more details.

HEMLOCK VALLEY RESORT

Hemlock Valley Resort is an amazing setting for fun-packed activities and the Fraser Valley's favourite Alpine Playground. Guests will enjoy the magic of a winter wonderland and soak up the panoramic views over Harrison Lake while trudging along untouched trails in the glistening snow.

Tentatively scheduled to open on December 7, Hemlock Valley Resort is one of the few places that can guarantee a White Christmas.

- Skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing and tubing
- Christmas Eve Dinner and Christmas Day Brunch
- New Years Eve Bash
- Chalet accommodations for families and larger groups
